RESPONSE TO NOTIFICATION OF MISSING REQUIREMENTS

Commissioner of Patents
PO Box 1450
Alexandria, VA, 22313-1450

Sir:

In response to the Notification of Missing Requirements under 35 U.S.C. 371 (copy enclosed), applicant respectfully states that he does not believe that any additional claim fees are due. In the present matter, the application was filed with eight total claims: two independent claims and six dependent claims. The office is urged to review the amended specification and claims filed as a preliminary amendment in the present application. In this version, the office will note that there are no multiple dependent claims although in the foreign application there were multiple dependent claims. This is perhaps the root of the confusion for the office.

Accordingly, the applicant urges that no additional claim fees are required for multiple dependent claims.

Applicant believes that no additional fees are required. In the event that the office disagrees, the office is authorized to charge deposit account 02-3285 for additional fees to keep the application from abandonment.

The office is also invited to telephone the undersigned, applicant's attorney of record, to facilitate advancement of the present application.

Respectfully submitted,

Dieter Lange
